Sacraments

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing in the name of the Father and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.

(Matthew 28: 19-20)

For the reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what God has joined together, no human being must separate.

(Matthew 19:5-6)

We welcome you to celebrate the Sacraments with our Parish Family. Please contact our Parish Secretary to arrange for any Baptism or Wedding.

PRAY FOR THOSE WHO HAVE GONE HOME TO THE LORD:

Mary Warshany, Bob Bearden, Nancy Castellano, Antonia Molaro (mother of Joanne Novack)

Lord for your faithful people life is changed not ended. When the body of our earthly dwelling lies in death we gain an everlasting dwelling place in heaven.

(Roman Missal, Preface of Christian Death)

This Weekend we celebrate the Feast Day of our Parish Patron, St. Vincent of Saragossa.

Vincent spent most of his life in the city of Saragossa, where he was educated and ordained to the diaconate by Bishop Valerius, who commissioned him to preach throughout the diocese. Because Valerius suffered from a speech impediment, Vincent acted as his spokesman

When the Roman Emperor Diocletian began persecuting Christians in Spain, both were brought before the Roman governor, Dacian in Valencia. Vincent and his bishop Valerius were confined to the prison of Valencia. Though he was finally offered release if he would consign Scripture to the fire, Vincent refused. Speaking on behalf of his bishop, he informed the judge that they were ready to suffer everything for their faith, and that they could pay no heed either to threats or promises.

His outspoken manner so angered the governor that Vincent was inflicted every sort of torture on him. Finally he was cast into prison and laid on a floor scattered with broken pottery, where he died. During his martyrdom he preserved such peace and tranquility that it astonished his jailer, who repented from his sins and was converted. Vincent declared that God sent the angels of heaven to comfort him. His cell, he said, was illuminated with a heavenly light, and might have been filled with roses, so sweet was its fragrance. Vincent's dead body was thrown into the sea in a sack, but was later recovered by the Christians and his veneration immediately spread throughout the Church.

He is honored as the patron in Valencia, Saragossa, Portugal and is the patron of bakers, roof-makers, vinedressers, vintners, and roofers. His feast day is January 22.

Stewardship Corner

My husband and I joined SVM Parish in early 2007.

Our oldest daughter was just a few months old and we were looking for the right parish to join. It took just a single Sunday service to feel this was the right parish for us.

Since then we have enjoyed countless gifts and blessings that our parish has to offer. It was not until about a year ago, that I felt a tremendous sense of gratitude to be a part of the SVM community for almost 10 years. I also felt a deep sense of responsibility to "pay forward". I then looked for opportunities to get involved and joined the Stewardship Initiative. I have met amazing fellow parishioners and I have grown spiritually like never before. I am Grateful, Gifted, and ready to Give. I encourage each one of you to look deep into your hearts to discover the same.

TERCER DOMINGO EN
TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Primera Lectura: Isaías

8:23-9:3

El profeta Isaías describe la angustias del pueblo conquistado, pero promete que ellos triunfarán y verán una gran luz como en el “día de Madián.”

Segunda Lectura: 1 Corintios
1:10-13, 17

Pablo le habla a los corintios con enojo e indignación puesto que han peleado entre ellos para determina a quién deben demostrar lealtad. Algunos desean seguir a Pablo, otros a Pedro, algunos a Apolos, y otros a Cristo.

Evangelio: San Mateo 4:12-23

Jesús empieza su misión yendo a Capernaún, cumpliendo la profesía de Isaías. Escoje a Pedro, Andrés, Santiago y Juan como sus discípulos, invitándolos a ser “pescadores de hombres”.

SU PALABRA HOY por el
Reverendo William J. Reilly

Tercer Domingo en Tiempo
Ordinario
22 de enero de 2017

“Hermanos, en el nombre de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, yo los exhorto a que se pongan de acuerdo: que no haya divisiones entre ustedes y vivan en perfecta armonía, teniendo la misma manera de pensar y de sentir... Porque Cristo no me envió a bautizar, sino a anunciar la Buena Noticia, y esto sin recurrir a la elocuencia humana, para que la cruz de Cristo no pierda su eficacia.”

Desde los primeros días de la iglesia, habían dudas y conflictos mientras las comunidades se formaban y crecían. Dos mil años después, la gente continúa formando bandos o siendo etiquetada. Las palabras de San Pablo deberían detenernos y hacernos pensar.

Escucho muchos sermones, leo muchos panfletos, veo una variedad de programas religiosos. Todos parecen tener diferentes perspectivas. Si son creíbles, deberían llevarnos a la cruz de Jesucristo. Si no logran hacerlo, son de poco valor.

¿No hemos escuchado las palabras de las escrituras: ‘Hay que necesita escuchar.

La colecta del Pasado 15 de
Enero fue de 144 dólares.

Dios multiplique su generosidad.
