*HOW CAN WE BECOME BETTER DISCIPLES?
BEING PEOPLE OF GRATITUDE*

In this weekend's Gospel we learn a lesson about being a good steward. Jesus shares a powerful parable with his disciples.

"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." Luke 12:15

The Gospel message today is so contrary to our modern culture where advertising continually tries to convince us that our value lies in the things we possess. Jesus showed us that our true value lies in the way we live our lives. He challenges us to not store up or hoard material possessions, but rather to live a grateful and generous lifestyle.

A disciple is a follower of Jesus Christ. As members of the Church, Jesus calls us to be disciples. This has astonishing and life-changing implications.

- Mature disciples make a conscious decision to follow Jesus, no matter what the cost.
- Christian disciples experience conversion – life shaping changes of mind and heart – and commit their very selves to the Lord.
- Christian stewards respond in a particular way to the call to be a disciple.

Stewardship has the power to shape and mold our understanding of our lives and the way in which we live. Jesus' disciples and Christian stewards recognize God as:

- the origin of life
- giver of freedom
- source of all things.

Disciples are grateful for the gifts they have received and are eager to use them to show their love for God and for one another. The life and teaching of Jesus guide us to live as Christian stewards.

SUNDAY READINGS

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Ecclesiastes 1:2, 2:21-23

"Vanity of vanities." Sometimes we may work for wealth, wisdom and knowledge only to discover that it has been left for someone who did not toil for it. The offering of our work, fatigue and pain, if not for God, can also be a kind of vanity.

Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11

Paul urges us to seek what is good and from God, encouraging us to put our minds on the spiritual. He reminds us that, as Christians, we have died with Christ and are hidden with Christ until his glory is once again revealed. We are all one in Christ.

Gospel: Luke 12:13-21

On being requested to settle a question of inheritance, Jesus heeds us to beware of all covetousness because our life does not consist on the wealth of possessions. Through the lesson of a parable Jesus reinforces this teaching, explaining that those who store up the treasures of wealth and possessions are not the richest in God's eyes.

Gratitude for Vacation Bible School

A very special thank you to all the amazing people who gave of their time and talent for 60 young parishioners at our annual VBS: this year themed as Cave Quest. Thank you to the children who were so great all week and really learned to be the light of the Lord in our world. Our volunteers of all ages, from the parish, school and Christian Formation alike were instrumental in making it a fantastic and very fun Vacation Bible School for all those involved. Without the help of so many wonderful people who shared the love of God in a unique way through our week it wouldn't have been possible, or nearly as spirit filled! Thank you sincerely to Maryann Palladino for coordinating the week with such love and creativity. We are blessed to work with you. Blessings, Denise Stefanelli

HALOS FOR ANGELS

Representatives from Halos for Angels will be speaking here on the weekend of August 13/14. Purchase a special savings pass for $5.00 that weekend and receive up to a 25% discount at all Macy's stores. Call 973-845-9636 for more information or to purchase a pass.

FAMILY PROMISE HOST WEEK CHANCE TO PUT MERCY IN MOTION

The Jubilee Year of Mercy inspires us at St. Vincent's where we will shelter homeless families in the Community Room of the Ministry Center during the Host Week beginning August 7. Volunteer sign-up sheets are on the gym bulletin board. St. Vincent is responsible for several nights and volunteers are urgently needed to sleep overnight. Please consider volunteering for this easy and rewarding shift – bring a friend! Orientation will be provided. Volunteers are also needed for set-up, clean-up, meals, and laundry of linens at the end of the week. For more information about the program or volunteer opportunities, please call Nancy Romain, 973-605-5970 or 973-865-8346 (cell), or e-mail nerdmr@optonline.net.

FAMILY PROMISE COORDINATOR POSITIONS

Have you ever thought you'd like to play a larger role in support of Social Ministries at St. Vincent's? Our Family Promise Ministry that shelters homeless families is in need of coordinators for 2 important functions: Volunteer Coordinator who recruits volunteers for the shifts during our 3 Host Weeks per year and Linen Coordinator who organizes sheets/towels/blankets before each Host Week and the laundry at the end of the week. Training will be provided for both of these volunteer positions and it's possible to schedule your activities to suit your personal schedule. If you are interested in learning how a few hours of your time can make a difference, please contact Lee Howard at 973-644-9876 or Nancy Romain, 973-605-5970 or 973-865-8346 (cell), or e-mail nerdmr@optonline.net.

A Family Perspective

In today's gospel Jesus teaches us: "One's life does not consist of possessions." We spend so much time working to obtain more stuff; we don't have time for the people in our lives. What is enough? Are the words of Jesus, "You fool", meant for us?

VIII Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Eclesiastes 1, 2; 2, 21-23
Col 3, 1-5. 9-11
Lc 12, 13-21

Jesús: “Guardanos de toda codicia”

“El buen Maestro, Jesus, en este domingo XVIII del Tiempo Ordinario, nos pide que no seamos codiciosos ni tengamos las riquezas como centro de nuestras vidas. No batallamos ni rompamos las familias por las herencias, no pensemos en nuestro dinero y su poder.

Seamos generosos y ejercitemos también nuestra misericordia en ayudas concretas a nuestros hermanos más necesitados. Nadie es rico ante Dios.”
