Appalachia Outreach 2016 Thank You Saint Vincent Martyr

Thank you to all the volunteers, their families and all the benefactors for “Helping Us, Help Others, Help Themselves.” Here is a brief summary of what was accomplished by the adults and teens from St. Vincent’s and St. Patrick’s in Appalachia this summer

- 9 families received new roofs in replacement of old leaky ones
- 1 family received a much needed wheel chair ramp
- 1 family received a bedroom/bathroom addition to an overcrowded trailer
- 2 families received new windows
- 1 family received new underpinning to their trailer
- 1 family received a new gravel driveway and walkway
- 1 family received all new flooring to replace damaged flooring from a flood

In addition, electrical & plumbing work was done, new porches were built, old porches were fixed, junk was hauled away to the dump because there is no bulk pick-up, and siding, fascia and soffits were installed. Overall, it was another successful summer. Thank you again to all who donated and to all who offered prayer. We hope that we can count on your support again next year!

Michelle Goodwin/adult volunteer

Going again to Appalachia this year was just as rewarding to me as it has been in the past. I had met the people down in Preston County West Virginia before and knew what was expected of me as a church volunteer from St. Vincent Martyr. The summer of 2011 was my first time there with my oldest daughter and in 2013 I went back with my second daughter. Besides learning how to build a deck and to rebuild a porch, I met a lot of new people who I worked alongside of and the local people who we did the work for. Seeing a part of the country where material items aren't as plentiful as they are here in Madison is always an eye opener for me. The land is beautiful and the people make do with what they have and that's just the way it is. For the youth of our parishes and the adult volunteers who go down to help buy materials and do much needed home repairs are a big blessing for the homeowners of Preston County. This year was my third trip to Appalachia with my third daughter and besides helping to build a home addition, I also spent time talking to Margaret, the homeowner and her granddaughter, Emily, and learning about them and their family. The week that I was in Appalachia the Gospel passage about Martha and Mary was read to us. Martha spent her time preparing food and serving her guests and this is important to help the needs of others. Mary spent her time listening to Jesus, giving him her undivided attention. It is just as important or probably even more important to be a lot like Mary. On Monday morning I think all the volunteers start out like Martha, but then as the week moves on, the Mary in us intensifies. I'd like to think that this year I became a little more like Mary.

Megan Phalin/teen volunteer

Going to Appalachia was one of the best experiences of my life. I learned that I was not only there to help rebuild homes but it was really much more than that. I realized that by helping others, I was also learning to help myself become a better person. Seeing the smiles on their faces after all of our hard work made everything worth it. In this moment I started to feel a strong connection to the people we were helping. I learned that by helping to restore their home I gave them a sense of dignity back that may have been lost.

Elizabeth Timmons/teen volunteer

This summer was my first year going to Appalachia, and I was both nervous and excited. My trip overall was so rewarding because not only did I have fun, I helped fix struggling families' homes so some of the burden could be lifted off their shoulders. The family who my group helped was outside every day asking us if we needed anything, and let us see and play with the numerous farm animals they had. I made new friends and reconnected with old ones, and was genuinely sad to leave on the last day. I will definitely be returning next summer.

Aileen Bergin/teen volunteer

My experience in Appalachia this July was incredibly moving. The teen and parent volunteers are all so dedicated to this mission, and work hard and selflessly, and their sense of love and support extends beyond the VFW and fills Preston County with hope and strength. In getting to know the homeowners of the house my group was working on, they let us know how much the church has done for their community. As my group screwed on the last piece of roof on our project, I could not have been prouder to say that in our time in West Virginia, we could leave Preston County a tiny bit better than before.

MISSION SUNDAY

This weekend, Rev. Jose Gualberto Villasis, Ph.D. of the Diocese of Kalibo, Philippines will speak at all the Masses. Our Catholic missionaries choose to follow Christ in His preference for the poor, not ideologically, but in the same way as Christ did: by living like them amid the uncertainties of everyday life and renouncing all claims to power and to become brothers and sisters of the poor. A second collection will take place, please be as generous as your means permit.

SUNDAY READINGS

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 66:18-21

Isaiah portrays a time when people from many nations will gather in Jerusalem and proclaim God's glory. God's messengers will teach many nations about God. Just as the Israelites bring offerings, these messengers will bring people from all nations to worship.

Second Reading: Hebrews 12:5-7, 11-13

The Hebrews are told that God disciplines those he loves. When a parent disciplines a child, the child usually learns what is expected of him. The Hebrews are encouraged to face life's trials as a form of discipline, and attempt to learn something from them.

Gospel: Luke 13:22-30

Jesus warns that the door to God's kingdom will be locked for those who ignored his wishes. Many people will come from all nations and take their place in God's kingdom. Others will not be recognized by God, and he will reject them.

MINISTRY

SCHOOL SUPPLY DRIVE

For many years now, our parish has helped students get back to school with all the materials and supplies they need. This year our school supply drive will be held the weekends of August 27/28 and September 3/4. Your contributions of supplies such as, backpacks, lunch bags, crayons, pencils, red pens, erasable pens and markers etc. help to make the start of school a little easier and more affordable for many families. Your donations can be placed in the vestibule of the school after each weekend Mass. If you know of a family that could benefit from this outreach, please call Maureen Dorney at 973-765-9662. We are anxious to help all those in need. Thank you, again for your generous support.

HOPE HOUSE FOOD COLLECTION

Our monthly collection will take place this weekend. Items needed are cold cereal, coffee, tea, pasta, tomato products, personal care items, dry milk, peanut butter, soups and so much more. A bin will be located in the school vestibule for your donations. The trustees of Hope House gratefully acknowledge our donation of assorted groceries.

A Family Perspective

The phrase in today's gospel, "I don't know where you come from," is often used by parents about children and children about parents. Change is so rapid one generation has little in common with another. We depend on love, trust, and mutual respect to bridge this gap.

In the Community

VIGÉSIMO PRIMER DOMINGO EN TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Primera Lectura: Isaías 66:18-21

Isaías describe el futuro cuando gente de muchas naciones se reunirán en Jerusalén para proclamar la gloria de Dios. Los mensajeros de Dios enseñarán a todas las naciones acerca de Dios. Así como los israelitas llevan ofrendas, estos mensajeros llevarán gente de todas las naciones a adorar.

Segunda Lectura: Hebreos 12:5-7, 11-13

Se les dice a los hebreos que Dios disciplina a aquellos a quienes ama. Cuando un padre disciplina a un niño, el niño generalmente aprende lo que se espera de él. Se alienta a los hebreos a enfrentar las dificultades de la vida como una forma de disciplina, e intentar aprender de ellas.

Evangelio: San Lucas 13:22-30

Jesús advierte que la puerta del reino de Dios estará cerrada a aquellos que ignoren sus deseos. Mucha gente vendrá de todas las naciones y tomará su lugar en el reino de Dios. Otros no serán reconocidos por Dios, y El los rechazará.
