The Pastor's Corner

Many of you will remember the statue that originally graced the front of the Parish Ministry Center and School. It was an imaginative image of our Blessed Mother guiding a young person in the way of wisdom. Sadly the statue was badly damaged in our attempt to remove and store it during the construction of our school addition and could not be used again. This created a need to find a new statue to occupy the reconfigured space in front of the Ministry Center and School. We went back to the artist Andrzej Praszczyk who had sculpted the original work and asked if he could produce an image of our Blessed Mother depicting her relationship with her Son, Jesus.

Barbara Doyle, Jan Figenshu and I worked closely with Andre in trying to come up with a representation of Mary that was at once joyful and peaceful, and of Jesus as he might have looked in his "tween" years. The result is the magnificent statue that now adorns the covered patio outside the Green Village entrance to the School and Ministry Center. As you look at the image you see Mary's left hand firmly placed on the shoulder of her son offering him the guidance of a loving mother. Her other hand lightly touches Jesus' right shoulder, almost in a gesture of letting go, knowing that Jesus did indeed need to be about His Father's work. The look on Mary's face is one of great pride in her Son - and on Jesus' face we see a confidence and happiness that comes in knowing he is loved so greatly by his Blessed Mother. Jesus holds in his hand a scroll containing the words: "He grew in grace and wisdom." These words are found in Luke's gospel as he speaks about how Jesus, after being found in the temple by his parents, goes home with them to Nazareth and is obedient to them. In this we find a wonderful reminder to our young people in our School and Faith Formation programs to grow in grace and wisdom like the Lord and to obey their parents as they guide them in the way of virtue.

I invite you to take a few moments to take in this beautiful and inspiring Madonna and Child - Mary, seat of wisdom, pray for us!

The Greatest Ability

Taken from Fresh Pack of Sower's Seeds

There are great abilities that people acquire, cultivate and demonstrate. In the service of God, however, there is one ability that is the greatest ability of all.

What is it? Is it sociability? Compatibility?
Accountability? Adaptability? Reliability?

The greatest ability is availability. If we are not available to God, no matter what other kinds of ability we have, our ability is no good. Ability without availability is a liability.

Availability means that there is a sense of preparedness and readiness. There are people in life who are prepared, but they simply are not available.

Sometimes people assume God cannot use them because they do not have great abilities, special talents or gifted aptitudes. They feel they are just ordinary and do not have anything special for God's use. But GOD never asks about our ability, only about our availability.

A Family Perspective

Because we believe we can control and create our own world, we attempt to juggle multiple agendas and we pay a price of neglecting those closest to us. Too late we reach the point of asking "Was it worth it?" We really can't serve two masters.

Experiencia Hispana

VIII Domingo del Tiempo
Ordinario

Primera Lectura: Is. 49, 14-15

La primera lectura de hoy, tomada del libro del profeta Isaías, es brevísima, nos expresa espléndidamente el amor que Dios nos tiene.

Segunda Lectura: 1Cor 4, 1-5

San Pablo, en su primera carta a los corintios viene a insistirnos que los servidores del Evangelio tienen que ser fieles a la administración que se les confió.

Evangelio: San Mateo 6, 24-34

Quiero recordarles que el evangelista guía de este año es Mateo, el publicano que, como cobrador de los impuestos para el pueblo romano, era considerado un "pecador", traidor a su religión y a su patria. En el texto que hoy nos presenta Jesús profundiza el sentido de confianza en Dios y lo sitúa en la realidad misma de cada día, de pie.

La oración constante

Continuamos reflexionando sobre la importancia de la oración según las enseñanzas del Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica.

«Para mí, la oración es un impulso del corazón, una sencilla mirada lanzada hacia el cielo, un grito de reconocimiento y de amor tanto desde dentro de la prueba como en la alegría (Santa Teresa del Niño Jesús, Manuscrit C, 25r: Manuscrits autohographiques [Paris 1992] p. 389-390).

¿De dónde viene la oración del hombre? Cualquiera que sea el lenguaje de la oración (gestos y palabras), el que ora es todo el hombre. Sin embargo, para designar el lugar de donde brota la oración, las sagradas Escrituras hablan a veces del alma o del espíritu, y con más frecuencia del corazón (más de mil veces). Es el corazón el que ora. Si este está alejado de Dios, la expresión de la oración es vana.

El corazón es la morada donde yo estoy, o donde yo habito (según la expresión semítica o bíblica: donde yo "me adentro"). Es nuestro centro escondido, inaprensible, ni por nuestra razón ni por la de nadie; sólo el Espíritu de Dios puede sondearlo y conocerlo. Es el lugar de la decisión, en lo más profundo de nuestras tendencias psíquicas. Es el lugar de la verdad, allí donde elegimos entre la vida y la muerte. Es el lugar del encuentro, ya que a imagen de Dios, vivimos en relación: es el lugar de la Alianza".

La próxima semana comenzaremos el tiempo de Cuaresma. En este tiempo le pedimos al Señor que aumente nuestra fe y nuestra vida de oración. Dios los bendiga siempre.
