Which group is right for you?

Parish Choir

Open to teens and adults and spanning in age from 14-80, this ensemble meets every Wednesday evening (7:30 - 9:00 p.m.) during the choir season (mid-Sept.-May) to prepare for service to the Sunday 10:30 Liturgy. This ensemble prepares a diverse range of musical selections that serves to complement the liturgy.

Contemporary Ensemble

A group open to teens and adults that prepares contemporary Christian music as well as contemporary arrangements of more traditional hymns for the 5:00 PM liturgy on Saturday. Singers and instrumentalists of all experience and skill levels are most welcome to come share their gifts and talents. Contemporary Ensembles rehearses on Tuesday evenings (7:00-8:30 p.m.) from mid-September through May.

Choristers

The Children's Choir of St. Vincent Martyr. Open to grades three to eight, this group of young musicians shares their gifts and talents at the 9:00am Family Mass about twice per month. Older members have the opportunity to serve as cantors and psalmists.

Handbell Choir

Our Handbell Choir is a highly dedicated ensemble serving to enhance various liturgies with the beauty and unique sound of handbells and choir chimes. This ensemble serves both alone and alongside our other choirs. Rehearsals are Wednesday evenings at 6:00 PM in the church.

Anouncing the addition of a Teen Music Group!

Interested teen instrumentals and singers alike are called to share their gifts and talents with the church. Contact Peter Solecki for more information.

To join any of these groups, please register at svmnj.org/choir-registration, talk to Peter Solecki, or see any music ministry member before or after Mass!
